What information we collect

We use personal information collected from donors for the purposes of processing payments, issuing receipts, tax exemption certificate, letter of thanks and communicating with donors about activities, programs, initiatives and event being organized at Blind People’s Association (India) as well as conducting the fundraising, resource mobilization and other operations of Blind People’s Association (India). This information may include name, amount donated, address, telephone number, mobile number, donor comments, e-mail address, and any other personal information provided to us (“Donor Data”). For donations by cheque, Donor Data also includes the data visible on the cheque.

Information from Payment Processors and Other Service Providers: Payment processors allow donors to give electronically using a payment services account, a credit card, or other payment method. These processors collect certain information from donors, and you should consult their privacy policies to determine their practices.

To provide donors the best possible experience, we work with service providers and may share Donor Data and other information with, or have it transmitted through, them. Such service providers include, for example, collocation facilities and bandwidth providers as well as organizations that help non-profit organizations, charitable organizations and societies with fundraising.

How we use that information

Donor Data may be used for these kinds of purposes:

- Distributing receipts, issuing income tax exemption certificates and thanking donors for donations
- Informing donors about upcoming fundraising and other activities, programs, events and campaigns of Blind People’s Association (India)
Internal analysis, such as research and analysis, documentation, studying donation trends, frequency and extent of donations and profile of donors

Record keeping as per standard accounting practices, Bombay Public Trusts Act, Income Tax Act, Foreign Contribution Regulation Act and other such Acts, provisions, rules and guidelines

Reporting to applicable government agencies, Statutory Authorities and Service providers as required by law

Surveys, metrics, and other analytical purposes

Other purposes related to the fundraising, resource mobilization or reporting requirements and operations

Anonymous donor information may be used for promotional and fundraising activities. Comments that are provided by donors may be publicly published and may be used in promotional materials. We may use available information to supplement the Donor Data to improve the information we use to drive our fundraising efforts. We may allow donors the option to have their name publicly associated with their donation by publishing the same on website, in Annual Report, our newsletter or such other communication or publicity material unless otherwise requested as part of the online donation process.

We use data gathered for payment processors and other service providers only for the purposes described in this policy.
